

Chapter 7: Dead Set Island

You've properly worn your lucky panties,
right?

What?!

I'm
not wearing
any
...!!

Minamoto
Unit,

I assume you're finished with the preparations?

Oh-

I suppose
we should introduce ourselves to each other.

So the ace of the first-years is showing up
too, huh?

We're not done!

Even though you two finally get to go on vacation alone
together...

Please
call me
"Iruka-senpai!"

with tons of love!

I'm
"Kunibayashi Iruka", a third-year
at Dawnlight
Academy,
specialized in the School of Sorcery!

I won't be joining in on the
frontlines,
but I'll devote myself completely
to supporting you all!

That dry
response
of yours is like a delinquent who has become sane.

Nice
...

...I'm
Yomi-
kado Meijirou.

He-
lo

How
about we start the briefing?

Well
then
...

It's located in the northern part of an isolated island northwest of Scotland called Lamela Island.

We observed a Level 4 Nova response at 4:54 today.

human's port

grana port

NOVA

church

stylekold hill

NOVA sphere

Lamela island

Area: 900 hectares Population: 128

They will be protecting the inhabitants, destroying the demons, and freezing the Nova.

Every member of the Minamoto Unit will invade from Lumen's Port, which is located outside of the Nova Sphere's influence.

EhP

What's a "Nova"?

Heyyy
...!?

So
that's it.
It's all good now.

It's a tunnel connecting the Demon
and Human Worlds.

According
to an approach from the field of theosophy of recent years-

For a question like that, I should be answering
it in a magically technical manner, hm?

I see.

It came from there? What about the concerns there?

EhP

An illusory barrier called a
"Nova Sphere"
has sprung
forth around
the Nova,
where two regional barriers collided.

Going in and out of the sphere is only possible when it's opened up by using Stars.

If this is a bluff intended to conceal your Seal of
Salem,
then it's a big issue.

...My
Dad.

A lack of training that's disproportionate to your potential...

The residents have already started
excavating,
to the monastery established at the church
that's on top of the hill.

Judging from their shape, it appears their field of activity is small.

According to
eyewitnesses, Dene's one account that states that
"they look like
short-limbed
beasts".

Any info
on the demons?

It seems
he knows how to handle
demons.

He will know a little about
ghosts, though.

It seems
Pastor Nix
there is a graduate of Dawnlight

They're
quite deft.

our operation
is simple.

Then
in this situation,

I, Mayor!, will rush to the estimated location of the Nova
appearance, freeze the Nova, and destroy the
demons-

Meijirou will head to the church with Karasuma-san
and Pastor Nix.

They'll
form a barrier and protect the residents.

-But-

Knowing Meijirou,
I think you wouldn't fall behind.

What
if the demons
are at the church?

and that you won't
act rashly, under any circumstances.

Promise me that you'll put the safety of us and the residents first

After
you pass

I'll go

So
you say?

There
hasn't been a single notuncanny
thing up
until now,
though.

This
academy...
is uncanny.

isn't a type of technique
that human-level Astrals
can use...

is a

This

Didn't
you say
I'd show up at the port!?

What's with this mysterious
space!?

A development
like this was simple yet perfect.

This is totally perfect.
